

GOSHA Privacy policy 2018

22 May 2018

Draft 1

ON OUR WEBSITE

The Guernsey Occupational Safety and Health Association (GOSHA) is committed to protecting your personal data and handling it responsibly.

Because of new data protection laws, known as the General Data Protection Regulation, coming into force on 25 May 2018, we are updating our privacy policy to give you more details on how we use your personal data and on your rights.

PRIVACY POLICY

Using your information

GOSHA collects your contact details when you join as a member. We will use this information to communicate with you via email and newsletters.

GOSHA will not share your information for marketing purposes with companies outside of GOSHA.

Access to your information and correction

You have the right to request the information that we hold about you. If you would like a copy, please email secretary@gosha.org.gg or write to us at the following address – GOSHA, Para Seimpre, Rue Charruée, Castel, Guernsey, GY5 7XU.

We want to make sure that your personal information is accurate and up to date. You may ask us to correct or remove information you think is incorrect.

Cookies

Cookies are text files placed on your computer to collect standard internet log information and visitor behaviour information. This is used to track visitor use of the website and to compile statistical reports on website activity.
